

NCBI Rochester, Inc. presents

Addressing Racial Barriers in the Workplace

Are you a business leader or employer with a genuine desire to create a diverse and inclusive workplace? Is your vision for equitable work environments culturally responsive when examined through the lens of race? This workshop will examine common roadblocks to racial equity and provide practical intervention strategies. The result: more vibrant, cohesive and effective responses to customer needs and organizational values.

DATE: Tuesday, November 14, 2017

TIME: 8 AM — 11 AM

LOCATION: Excellus BlueCross BlueShield, 165 Court Street, Rochester, NY 14647

FACILITATORS

Sady Fischer is the Diversity and Inclusion Consultant at Excellus BlueCross BlueShield. She brings social justice expertise as a Queer feminist Latina to the corporate world. She is a nationally Certified Diversity Professional, having received her BA in Gender Studies from SUNY Empire State College.

Steven Jarose is Director of the National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI) of Rochester NY, Inc. As a consultant specializing in organizational culture, assessment and leadership development, he served on the Structural Racism Resource Team for the Rochester-Monroe Anti-Poverty Initiative (R-MAPI). He earned a BS from Cornell University and MA from Columbia University.

Indrani Singh is Director of Community Health Partnerships at the University of Rochester Medical Center. She has experience in interdisciplinary research and building partnerships in support of equitable and sustainable results. She holds a BA from Grinnell College, Iowa and MS from Cornell University.

To Register, Click here

Fee: $75, payable to NCBI Rochester NY, Inc.

Contact: Pat Willis at willis.patricia908@gmail.com or 585-313-1047

Addressing Racial Barriers in the Workplace

November 14, 2017

Registration Form

Mail registration to NCBI Rochester, c/o Starbridge, 1650 South Ave., Suite 200, Rochester NY 14620.

Workshop fee is $75, payable to NCBI Rochester NY, Inc.

Registration is due by Thursday November 9.

Feel free to contact Pat Willis at willis.patricia908@gmail.com or 585-313-1047 if you have questions.

NAME

ORGANIZATION

ADDRESS

PHONE

EMAIL (required)

SPECIAL REQUESTS/ ACCOMMODATIONS
